

Small Group Questions – May 19, 2019

Do you sometimes struggle with believing that you are loved by God? If so why do you think this is so? If not why do you think this is so?

What might we learn from listening to others experience of God's love?

We are commanded to love our sisters and brothers. Do you find that difficult at times? How do you respond to those times when loving brother or sister is very hard?

What are some of the ways that you show love to others?

Extra question:

Song of Solomon..... why do you think that it is in Scripture?