

Pentecost:

The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit as Jesus had promised, and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Do you think that this was the same gift that St. Paul spoke about 1 Cor. 12:7-11. Is this a gift that you have or would like? Have you prayed about it?

How does God 'speak' to you? Eg Word, image, sound, silence. Is there a specific instance that you can share?

What is your understanding/experience of the Holy Spirit?

Do you think that women and men 'prophecy' today, if so explain why, if not, why not.

Have you prayed to be 'filled' with the Spirit, or has someone else prayed that over you?

Lyn spoke about the children learning about the traditions of the Anglican Church. How important are those traditions to you?

Read 1 Cor. 12:7-11. What gift would you like – have you asked for it, how about now?
