

Questions re John 1

A child asked, “Why did God send his only son to be killed?”

How would you respond to that question?

John the Baptist called Jesus “The Lamb of God” how do you understand that designation?

Corrie ten Boon said something along the lines that once sins are confessed God casts them into the ocean and puts up a sign saying no fishing. In other words, we don't need to keep dredging them up.

Are you able to accept that your sins are forgiven?

Considering your responses to these questions, how might you share some of this with a non church goer, or would you?
