

Palm Sunday, Mar 28 – Small Group Leader's Guide - Read John 12:12-26

1. What are some of our personal and church-cultural expectations regarding how Jesus' lordship and messiahship should look like in our lives or in the world?
2. Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a young donkey, a lowly animal of peace and docility. How could we emulate Jesus in His manner of peace and meekness as demonstrated in His royal procession as the King of the cosmos?
3. Greek proselytes asked Jesus' disciples for an audience with Jesus. Today, for what reasons would the world be asking Christians to get an audience with Jesus, an opportunity to "see Jesus"?
4. According to Jesus, His lordship and messiahship would be like the dying of a seed to bear much fruit. How can we follow Jesus in this way of dying to ourselves for the bearing of fruit in our neighbourhoods and city?
