Read Zechariah 12:10-13:1-2, 7-9

1. In what ways are we invited as a Church to mourn and grieve for sins in our own house and of the world? How are we to rightly feel regret and remorse for our own sins?
2. In light of the present sins of the Church and of our society, how are we invited to practically work out repentance as not only a change of heart and mind but also as a change of behaviour and actions?
3. If you can envision what renewal and revival look like in the Church and society, what can we expect for them to manifest as?
4. In the sermon, John Oakes concluded that Jesus is the ultimate key to revival. How is Jesus the key to revival and how is that put into effect in our own lives and in the world around us?
