

Nov 6/22 –Small Group Questions- Read Romans 8:1-11

1. Paul says there is therefore now no condemnation for Christians. But how come Christians continue to feel pangs of condemnation, either from within themselves or from others? How do we mitigate these real and powerful feelings of condemnation?
2. Paul says that the Holy Spirit frees us from the flesh. What is the "flesh" and how do we experience it in our day-to-day life?
3. In our warfare against the flesh, Paul says to set our minds on the things of the Spirit. What does it mean to "set our minds" and what are the "things of the Spirit"?
4. The Holy Spirit frees our mortal bodies from the tyranny of death. In the sermon, Orvin said that this can mean that Christians are freed from the business and culture of death for the here and now. What does this mean?
