(Small Group Questions)

1. What do you think of the book of Revelation? Have you had good or bad experiences with it?
2. How have you imagined the afterlife? How does that fit, or not fit, with what this passage from Revelation depicts?
3. The phrase "new heaven and new earth" indicates that we won't just "go to heaven" when we die, but that there will be a new creation to interact with. How does this notion land with you?
4. The holy city, Jerusalem, has a number of characteristics mentioned in Revelation 21. What are some of them?
5. How does our vocation as rulers and priests in God's creation fit into this image of new creation?
6. What are the three most common commands in the book of Revelation? How does one lead to the other?
