Luke 24:13-35

- 1. Where do you resonate with the disciples “walking away from Jerusalem”? Have you ever experienced disappointment with God, faith, or expectations that didn’t come true?

- 2. What stands out to you about how Jesus approaches the disciples on the road? What does this tell us about how he meets us?

- 3. The disciples open up honestly to a stranger. What do you think made Jesus feel “safe” to them? What would it look like for you to speak that honestly with Jesus?

- 4. Have you ever had a moment where something “clicked” spiritually—where God helped you see things differently? What was that like?

- 5. The turning point comes when the disciples invite Jesus to stay. What might it look like for you to “invite Jesus in” more intentionally right now?

- 6. The disciples recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread and immediately go share the news. Where do you notice Jesus’ presence in your life—and how might you share that with others?
